“TORTURE” is a word which has a wide range of implications, all of which touch upon human emotions.

For this simple reason, human beings are perceptive to the alteration of emotional reaction.

More precisely, these human emotions are beyond appreciation in the two ranges of heart; “LOVE” and “HATE”.

The importance of “LOVE” and “HATE” are based on a “Heart of Fire”.

“Heart of Fire” of “LOVE” or “HATE” can create “MAGIC”.

Thus, whatever happen, it is no more than an imagination, which the heart can swallow.

In conclusion, “TORTURE” in this sense is a “SUBJECTIVE” matter.
