

Survival

By

Dr. Hashim Behbehani

There are two human elements which go hand in hand in the core of human survival.

Moreover, the two elements unite in one human trend. Hence, it is there where the elements for human development are in desperate need for MANAGEMENT.

Furthermore, such human MANAGEMENT is in need for DISCIPLINE, especially since the human affairs are difficult from every direction.

Therefore, human affair require LEADERSHIP and MANAGEMENT in order to survive.

However, it must be pointed out that dreams are meaningless because they are “passing affairs”, especially since they are no more than “figments of imagination”. Therefore, one ought not to expect much to be realized from dreams.

Furthermore, one ought to pay attention to the human ability to be able to change the course of history. Thus, the need for solid leadership in order to solidify the GROUND BASES, and TRUST

More significantly, TRUST must be in both directions between the LEADERSHIP and the PEOPLE in order to achieve a future united GOALS.

In order to achieve such realization, one ought to dwell upon the thoughts of constructing new human civilization.

Needless to note, that such a civilization is far from just being a passing dream but human pro-activities

In conclusion and based on the above, one can be able to talk about the STATE of KUWAIT as a modern CIVILIZATION.